

The Christ, Who Gave the Blind Man Sudden Sight

CALVINO

10 10 10 10

Mary R. Bittner (b. 1938)

João Wilson Faustini

1. The Christ, who gave the blind man sud - den sight,
 2. When lack of vi - sion lim - its what we do,
 3. Through moist - ened dirt from ground be - neath our feet
 4. God's vi - sion lives in us when Christ ap - pears sur - pris - es doubt - ers and be - liev - ers, too.

 help us to hear, to feel each oth - er's needs.
 the work of God in hu - mans is re - vealed.
 and clothes each one in dig - ni - ty and worth.

Would sin dis - solve, would wrong be changed to
 As wash - ing clears our sight and makes us
 The masks fall from our eyes and glanc - es
 Our God, who o - pens eyes and mouths and right if we could learn to see and worship you?

 new, may jus - tice flow from end - ing sight-less deeds.
 meet, and our di - vi - sive blind-ness can be healed.
 ears, has sent us Christ, the light of all the earth.

Text © 2004 by Wayne Leupold Editions, Inc., for all countries of the world.

Music © 2006 by Wayne Leupold Editions, Inc.,

WL800014

for all countries of the world except Brazil and Portugal.